

Report Bribery, Attempted Bribery or Other Forms of Corruption in the Russian Federation

Section 202 (b) of the Russia and Moldova Jackson-Vanik Repeal and Sergei Magnitsky Rule of Law Accountability Act of 2012, requires the U.S. Department of Commerce to maintain a telephone hotline and a secure website to permit U.S. entities to report on instances of bribery, attempted bribery and other forms of corruption in the Russian Federation that impact their operations and to request U.S. Government assistance with respect to issues of corruption in the Russian Federation.

Please complete and submit the form below if you would like to report an instance of bribery, attempted bribery, or other form of corruption in the Russian Federation or to request assistance in dealing with the instance of bribery or corruption which you are reporting.

If you do not want to use this form, you may call the U.S. Department of Commerce's Russia Corruption Telephone Hotline at (202) 482-7945.

1. Please provide us with your contact information.

Company:

Address:

Telephone:

Fax:

Email:

Name:

2. Please describe the instance of bribery, attempted bribery, or other corruption in the Russian Federation that you are reporting. [Please limit your response to 1 page. You may attach supporting documentation. Foreign language documents should include an English language translation.]

3. In what region of Russia did this incident occur?

4. Does this issue impact your operations in Russia or elsewhere?

5. Is this report intended solely for information purposes?

Yes No

6. Does this report include a request for U.S. government assistance in addressing the incident?

Yes No

NOTE: If public disclosure of any portions of the information you submit could cause your company substantial competitive harm, indicate this by marking those portions "business confidential." We will protect such information from disclosure to the extent provided by law. Providing this information is voluntary and will be used by USG officials to provide assistance. We protect business confidential information from disclosure to the extent provided by law. See our privacy policy for additional information.